

Derald Brackmann, MD was raised in a small village in Illinois. He attended the University of Illinois and graduated from its medical school in Chicago. He served in the United States Airforce which brought him to Southern California. After completion of his military duty, he did his Otolaryngology Head and Neck Residency at LA County USC and then completed a Fellowship at the House Clinic/Research Institute where he has practiced Otology and Neurotology his entire career. Dr. Brackmann has been active in clinical research and has been the author of more than 330 papers and book chapters. He is Clinical Professor of Head and Neck Surgery at UCLA and have served as past president of all of the major societies of his specialty. Dr. and Mrs. Brackmann have 4 sons and 7 grandchildren, all of whom they enjoy greatly.