

Kian Karimi MD, FACS is a double-board certified facial plastic surgeon / head and neck surgeon. Originally from Indiana, Dr. Kian received his medical degree at Indiana University School of Medicine and graduated at the top of his class, earning him membership into the Alpha Omega Alpha honor society. Dr. Kian completed his head and neck surgery residency at the University of Florida and fellowship in facial plastic surgery at the University of Toronto.

Dr. Kian has served seven years as one of the team plastic surgeons for the Los Angeles Kings Hockey organization. He is a volunteer lecturer and clinical instructor for UCLA medical students and residents. Dr. Kian is nationally recognized and is featured regularly in the media in shows such as EXTRA!, and he is a recurring guest on CBS 'The Doctors' for his cutting edge, minimally invasive aesthetic techniques.

Dr. Kian is actively involved in training other physicians in the latest techniques in facial aesthetics and has trained hundreds of aesthetic professionals in his career. He is actively involved in research in facial plastic surgery and has particular interest in rhinoplasty, minimally invasive facial rejuvenation, and ethics.